MAYOR CALLS FOR SUSPENSION OF OFFICER AFTER OBSERVING AN INCIDENT NEAR HIS HOME

Mayor Haywood at odds with council and police department

Wednesday at 2 p.m. to express his dissatisfaction with recent actions in the police department and his overall displeasure with the relationship between the police department, himself and the city council members.

Overall, the mayor continues to disagree with the long standing policy of the full city council approving the hiring of police officers. This incident happened on sounday night. He propried that Burke had been suspended at his insistence, but is now back at work (three days later). ment on how the matter should be handled.

While Haywood passed out copied of the Elba Personnel Ordinance which says horseplay is grounds for suspension or firing, Nelson explained there were not copies available in his office and he had no way of knowing if police officers hired within the past several years have been afforded the opportunity to read and study the personnel manual or the police department SOP.

Nelson said this didn't mean his investigation was showing Officer Burke was personally engaged in unprofessional horseplay or any other violations of department procedure, but that the lack of available code books could play a part in any activate consecusive of the store and expension.

Absentee Ballot Issue

Last week, the Alabama Legislature met in a special session to consider two bills proposed by Governor James to change our election laws in Alabar .. This effort resulted from the election dispute over illegal absentee ballots stemming from the Hooper/Hornsby race for the Alabama Supreme Court in

To clear this matter up for future elections, Governor James called the legislature into a special session to address this matter. The first bill introduced by Governor James reinstated the requirement that absentee ballots must be notarized or signed by two witnesses. I was in strong support of this bill because it is important that the absentee ballot process be clear and understandable to all voters. It is even more important that any misuse of the absentee ballot process be election to give voters a greater opportunity to go to the pells. This will allow voters who will be out of town on election day, or may otheiwise have a legrumate reason for not being able to go to the polls, to have the opportunity to participate in the process. These changes made in the Senate were agreed to by the House and signed into law by Governor James. By passing a strong absentee ballot bill, the special session was a success and most people believe that we were able to solve the biggest problem facing our election process. There are might be considered in the future to help protect the validity of our elections, but clearing up the absentee ballot issue once and for all was a major step for-

Faith's warfare

Elisha taught his servant. The text of 2 Kings 6:8-17 involves war between Israel and Syria, and the prophet Elisha's informing his people of the enemy's tactics through prophetic insight (v. 12).

Here is the lesson: Prayer is the key to discerning our adversary's strategies. Further, the key to dispelling Elisha's servant's panic was his vision being opened to see the invisible. Note these crucial words, "Elisha Elisha did not ask God simply to show the servant another miracle, he asked for his servant to see into another dimension. The answer came immediately, "The Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw, and behold the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha," (v. 17). An unseen spiritual realm exists, consisting of a host of ministering angels who are active in the lives of God's people. Not only is God for His people, but also armies of His angels stand by, ready to deend the believers and God's kingdom.

All Bible-believing Christians should continually pray that God would deliver them from spiritual blindness and open the eyes of their hearts to THE KEVIN SPENCER FAMILY, of Shelby, Ohio, will be in concert at see more clearly the spiritual reality of God's kingdom and its heavenly traveled nearly a million miles while singing with "The Spencers". Now, this group has won many awards and can be seen nationally televised. The Seeing into the invisible is a key to victorious praying -- discerning spir tual issues from God's perspective rather than man's seeing the adversary's attack plan, and perceiving God's angelic strike force.

Melanie has never been one that likes any kind of pain, but over the weekend she put her fears aside and got her ears pierced. Her cousin was going to get her's pierced and Melanie was going along to give her enouragement; however, when it came time for the actual piercing, it was Melanie that went first, I don't know if Melanie wanted to show her cousin it didn't hurt, or if it was the fact you had to get your ears pierced to get some earrings; however, she now has pierced ears and some pretty earrings to show for the experience!

SCHOOL POPULATIONS REVEAL INTERESTING FACTS

The Alabama High School Athletic Association has re-classified its member schools for the coming two years, and while there are always changes that take place, it is the populations of the schools that always create the most interest. Here's a look at the student populations and the six different classifications for the next two years:

*CLASS 6A - The biggest sixty-one schools in the state are in Class 6A, and while it is fair for the biggest schools to compete against each other, it seems a little unfair that the difference in student population in the biggest school and smallest school is almost 1,200 students. That comes out to almost 400 students per grade, which is quite a difference when it comes to competing in sports. Montgomery has three of the state's biggest schools in Jeff Davis, Robert E.Lee and Lanier, while Enterprise comes in at #11 with 1,138.4 students in just the top three grades. If Dothan and Northview were combined into one school, which was the case for many years, it would be the state's largest school with almost

*CLASS 5A - A total of sixty-three schools are in Class 5A, and the spread between the biggest school (Booker T. Washington) and the smallest school (Opp) is almost 270 students in three grades. Smiths Station has grown by leaps and bounds in recent years and like B.T. Washington was only three students away from moving up to 6A, while at the other end Opp was only three students away from joining the 4A ranks. Andalusia has also made a slide toward the bottom in 5A circles and was thirteen students way from the 4A ranks, making the two Covington County cities among the state's smallest in 5A. Greenville is ranked 14th and is solid with over 605 students, which is over 200 more than Opp. If size really does count, Greenville should rule the roost locally.

*CLASS 4A - Bibb County moved down from 5A and is now the largest school in the 4A ranks with 390.5 students, while Pike County re mained at the bottom of the chart with 281.5 students and is the smallest school in the 4A ranks. Pike County was only five students away from falling down to 3A, while Abbeville was also low on the list and was only nine students away from becoming a 3A school. Daleville was by far the largest of the area 4A schools with a student enrollment of 358.7 in its top three grades, and one school that caught my eye was St. Paul's, which moved up from the 3A ranks and is now the 29th largest 4A school in the state with 321 students. Dale County and Geneva were listed with identical enrollments, which should make the school's athletic teams dead-

*CLASS 3A - Sixty-three schools are in the 3A ranks and atop the list is East Limestone with 276.4 students, while Crossville brings up the rear with 207.9 students, a difference of almost 70 students. Headland moved down from 4A and is the third largest school in the 3A rankings, while Rehobeth is also getting bigger and came in at 18th with 256.3 students, almost 20 students more than Elba, which ranked 32nd with 237.4. The schools in Class 3A are still from the northern part of the state, for the most part, but the closeness of the student populations does make for a very competitive sports world.

*CLASS 2A - The world in Class 2A had the biggest shake-up of any class with three local schools dropping down to the 2A ranks. Springville is the largest school with 207.4 students and Warrior is the smallest with 141.6, a difference of over 65 students. However, the addition of Luverne, Louisville and Slocomb to the 2A ranks should make this class quite interesting. Luverne is the second biggest school in the state in 2A with 205.8 students in the top three grades, followed by Louisville in fourth with 201.3 and Slocomb in 5th with 200.3. New Brockton dropped down to the 1A ranks two years ago, but has moved back up and now ranks 50th with 156.7 students, which is sixteen students over the 1A limit. When you add this trio of schools to other area 2A schools such as Cottonwood, Goshen, Georgiana, Houston County, Highland Home, Straughn, Samson, New Brockton, Florala, Wicksburg, Geneva County, Red Level, Clayton and G.W. Long, it looks like South Alabama is 2A heaven.

*CLASS 1A - Gaston is the largest 1A school in the state with 140.5 students, but you don't have to look very far to find some area schools as Brantley is fifth with 134.8, Kinston follows at sixth with 134.5 and Zion Chapel is near by at ninth with 131.4. If the schools in the Coffee County system consolidated, the new school would have approximately 422 students, which would make it a 5A school. Just something to think about! McKenzie is now one of the smallest schools in the state with only 82.8 students in its top three grades, and only time will tell if it goes the way of Dozier. Pleasant Home ranks 35th in the 1A ranks, and is larger than 33 schools that play football. However, that means little, since Ramsey is a 5A school with 462 students and also doesn't field a football team.

DIXIE YOUTH SERIES IS "MUST SEE" FOR AREA FANS

The Dixie Youth Baseball World Series will be held in Dothan the week of August 12th and area youth baseball fans should definitely make plans to attend. Teams from eleven states will compete at the annual national tournament, and the best 11-12-year-old players from the Southeast will be on display. The tickets are very reasonable and the trip to Dothan isn't very long. So, make your plans now to attend at least one night and see

ELBA COACHING STAFF HAS FAMILIAR LOOK

NO QUESTION WHAT THEY DID IN THE SUMMER!

What if the teachers at Elba Junior High asked the question "How did you spend your summer vacation?" Well, they would get a lot of different answers, but several girls would have the same answer and would say "I played softball and traveled all over the place!" That would be the answer of many girls in the 12-14 year-old range, since that group of girls played almost 40 softball games during the summer in places like Eufaula; Troy; Ashford; Tallahassee, Florida; Pell City; Andalusia; Abbeville; Huntsville; Cullman; and Charlotte, North Carolina. This group played for Cash Brothers Leasing, and also made an appearance on two Elba All-Star teams, during their summer softball trek. The girls placed 3rd in Eufaula, 4th in Tallahassee, 1st in Pell City, 4th in Andalusia, 3rd in Huntsville, 9th in Cullman and 13th in Charlotte, and along the way brought home one state championship, third place in another state tourney and the respect of the entire nation in girl's softball. Not the way to get much rest, but certainly the way to improve in a sport and get valuable experience.

Tribute To United States Senator Howell Heflin Appreciation Dinner Set

As Senator Howell Heflin's tenure draws to a close, an appreciation linner has been planned in his honor. A special thanks to Senator Heflin has been set for Tuesday evening, August 20, at the Dothan Civic Center,

The Alabama Peanut Producers Association is coordinating the event representing agriculture, area businesses and citizens of Southeast Alabama. Several members of Congress will be in attendance at the appreciation dinner including Senator Thad Cochran (R-MS), who is Chairman of the Agriculture Appropriations Committee and the Senate Ag Committee; Congressman Charles Stenholm (D-TX), who is likely to be the ranking Democrat on the House Ag Committee; our own Congressman Terry Ev-
